Decade of the Rosary

7 minutes prior to the start of Mass

Good morning. In 1982, President Reagan proclaimed April to be the first National Child Abuse Prevention Month, and that tradition continues today. Together we can ensure that all are safe from sexual abuse and provide assistance and support to survivors who are on the path to healing. You can help in these efforts by offering your prayers for healing and protection. This rosary will help you to life up their needs in prayer, offering them to God through Mary who offers her loving protection to all her children.

“She gave birth to her firstborn son. She wrapped him in swaddling clothes and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.”

Jesus, the Son of God, entered the world as a vulnerable child. He was not counted among the great and powerful, instead lying in a manger. We are called to protect all those who are vulnerable, especially children, by providing them with safe places to live and grow.

Sign of the Cross

Our Father, Who art in heaven
Hallowed be Thy Name;
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
Amen.

Hail Mary, (10 times)

Full of Grace,
The Lord is with thee.
Blessed art thou among women,
and blessed is the fruit
of thy womb, Jesus.
Holy Mary,
Mother of God,
pray for us sinners now,
and at the hour of death. Amen.

Glory be to the Father,
and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit.
As it was in the beginning is now,
and ever shall be,
world without end.
Amen.

O my Jesus,
forgive us our sins,
Save us from the fires of hell,
and lead all souls to Heaven, especially those in most need of your Mercy.
Amen.

“You yourself a sword will pierce so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.”

The experience of sexual abuse is shattering and can make a person feel as if his or her heart and world is torn asunder. We pray for those survivors who are seeking healing and strength. Their path is challenging, but our loving support can make it easier.

“They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.”

The Spirit brought the Apostles the gift of courage. No longer did they hide behind locked doors in the upper room, seeking their own safety. Rather, they boldly went out into the city proclaiming the Good News of Jesus Christ and calling the people to repentance in his name. In the same way, we must boldly speak out to create environments where everyone can grow and learn in safety.

“His mother said to him, ‘Son, why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been looking for you with great anxiety.’”

Sexual abuse affects not only the victims, but his or her family as well. Our healing efforts must extend to these family members, to alleviate their pain and anxiety and help them to grow even closer to God’s healing love.

“And the soldiers wove a crown out of thorns and placed it on his head, and clothed him in a purple cloak, and they came to him and said, ‘Hail, King of the Jews!’ And they struck him repeatedly.”

Those who have survived sexual abuse may feel isolated from the community, set apart and unwelcome. Jesus must have felt the same as the soldiers mocked and tortured him. As members of Christ’s Body, the Church, we are called to see Christ in our brothers and sisters in need and offer them our aid, comfort and support.

“The woman herself fled into the desert where she had a place prepared by God.”
At her death, Mary was assumed into heaven, body and soul. As she carried the Son of God in her body, her body was taken to heaven to share in the full glory of her Son. We pray for those survivors of sexual abuse who seek healing and wholeness, that Mary will present them to her Son who alone makes us whole.

“This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel.”

Jesus boldly preached the coming of God’s kingdom, reminding his followers of the need to conform their lives to God’s laws. As members of God’s Church, we must boldly remind all elements of society of the need to protect the vulnerable. The message may not be welcome, but it is essential.

“They pressed into service a passer-by, Simon, a Cyrenian, who was coming in from the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to carry his cross.”

Simon helped Jesus carry his cross, helping him to bear the weight and the burden. So must we help survivors of sexual abuse bear the weight and burden of their experiences, helping them to find healing in God who is light and life.
